LIBRARY & LEARNING CENTER
RULES OF CONDUCT

Metropolitan State University provides this facility as a welcoming, safe, clean, and comfortable place for all our learning communities. For the benefit of all users, the following activities are prohibited in this facility:

- Annoying, harassing, or threatening another person.
- Behaving in a disorderly, loud, or disruptive manner.
- Being in the facility when it is closed.
- Bringing animals (except service animals), bicycles or vehicles into the library.
- Carrying weapons of any type unless authorized by law.
- Defacing or destroying property.
- Drinking alcoholic beverages, being intoxicated or under the influence of drugs.
- Eating food other than light snacks.
- Engaging in any activities while on library premises that are not related to the proper use of the library.
- Interfering with others' library use via poor personal hygiene.
- Leaving young children or vulnerable adults unsupervised.
- Physical, sexual, or verbal abuse of other library users or staff.
- Playing audio equipment without headphones or loudly enough with headphones so as to disturb others.
- Sleeping lying down or in a manner that disturbs others.
- Smoking or using tobacco products.
- Soliciting, selling, distributing samples, or campaigning.
- Violating rules for the management of computer use.

University and Security staff are authorized to take appropriate measures to enforce these rules. Persons failing to follow instructions from staff may have their library and building privileges suspended or revoked.

Thank you for your cooperation.