

An assault occurred on the Minneapolis Campus last night, Dec. 2, 2009, at approximately 9 p.m. The victim, a member of our university community, reported that while walking from the science building to the ramp, someone ran up to her, briefly grabbed her and kept running. The victim was not physically hurt and there was no theft involved.

If you have any information relative to this incident, please contact the MCTC Safety Office at 612-659-6910. If you ever feel uncomfortable about your environment, immediately call the Safety Office or 911.

Please review these personal safety tips:

1. Call an escort or be sure to walk with others. Choose well lit and direct pathways at night and remain alert; walk confidently and purposefully.
2. Be prepared to physically or psychologically protect yourself by reviewing how you would react during an incident.
3. If you notice any suspicious behavior on or around campus, immediately notify campus safety staff and/or the police.
