

Metro State University Fees Details

Healthcare services fees: Healthcare services fees are assessed to all students.

The healthcare fee was approved by the Student Senate. The fee is designed to cover the cost of providing healthcare services to students. There will be a list of contracted health care services and a staff member hired as a navigator to help students who need to access health care services.

Student center fees: Student center fees are assessed to all students. The fee supports the construction, maintenance and operation of the student center. The amount of this fee is determined by the Student Senate.

Parking fees: Parking fees are assessed to students and faculty/staff and visitors to use the Metro State University Parking Ramp in St. Paul and to park at contracted lots in various campus locations. The fee is used to pay for construction, maintenance and operation of the parking ramp and other parking costs incurred by the University. The rate is set after consultation with and input from the Student Senate.

Student Life/Activity Fee: The student life activity fee is assessed to all students. The amount of this fee is determined by a student committee. These funds are distributed to student organizations, such as the Student Senate, student organizations, The Metropolitan, and the Student Life and Leadership Development Office. There is a student life activity fee per credit hour.

Technology Fee: The technology fee, assessed to all students, is used to support student computer labs and other technology that directly relates to instruction. There is a fee per credit hours.

MSUSA Fee: The Minnesota State University Student Association (MSUSA) fee, assessed to all students, is determined by the MSUSA Minnesota State College and University System Board of Trustees. Funds are used by the MSUSA statewide, for activities representing students. There is a MSUSA fee per credit hour.
