Nomination/selection policy:

Metropolitan State graduates, staff, faculty, or members of the community may nominate a candidate.

Each nominee is judged on the quality of their leadership performance and the extent to which they have made a meaningful contribution to Metropolitan State University and the community. Nominees must demonstrate their commitment to the university values of excellence, engagement, inclusion, respect, and integrity. The Nominators can learn more about our commitments by visiting: www.metrostate.edu/about/mission.

For the committee to adequately evaluate the nominee, the quality of the nomination itself may be a factor in the selection committee's decision. Therefore, please provide sufficient information in the submission by answering the questions as completely as possible.

The selection committee consists of an appointed Alumni Association committee, the Association Board president and the Alumni Relations director. The committee forwards its recommendation to the Alumni Association Board for approval.
