

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE CYBER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM 2020

COMPUTER SCIENCE AND CYBERSECURITY DEPARTMENT

DOD CYBER SCHOLARSHIP (CYSP) RESUME SAMPLE

The following is a sample layout and details to include in your resume for application for this scholarship. Note the resume should not be more than two pages.

Sam Muskrat
1234 Seventh Street East
St. Paul, MN 55106
651-555-5555 | sam.muskrat@metrostate.edu

Cyber Qualifications & Experience

What is your objective and why do you think you want/qualify for this scholarship?*

Skills

- Python Programming
- Java Programming
- Security Fundamentals
- Network protocols
- Wi-Fi
- Bluetooth networking
- Cryptography
- Cellular
- Hw/Sw Repair
- Operating systems – 10 OS, Mac OS, Ubuntu Linux, Windows 7, 8 OS
- Low level programming (C & Assembly)
- Arabic & Spanish languages
- Wireshark
- VMWare Workstation
- Certificate in Networking

Education:

Metropolitan State University (GPA 3.59)
Major: Bachelor of Applied Science in Cyber Operations
Minor: Computer Programming

St. Paul, MN
Graduating Spring 2022

Normandale Community College (GPA 4.00)
A.A. General Requirements

Bloomington, MN
Graduated 2017

Experience:

Under experience summarize the work environment, duties and list at least 3 important tasks, accomplishments or skills gained at each job.*

ABC Company, Minneapolis, MN

Desktop Support Specialist

July 2013- Present

Provided level 1 and 2 technical support for 150+ users. Ensured quick resolution of user concerns and escalated more complicated issues to helpdesk managers.

- Cut incident callback rate by 12%; used technical, analytical and communication skills to accurately identify user needs and provide effective solutions.

- Awarded “Star Employee” three times for delivering outstanding technical support and customer service.

Hugo Fire Department, Hugo, MN

Volunteer Fire Fighter

2015-2019

Worked alongside local Fire Suppression Agencies to assist as needed for fires, floods and other emergencies as needed. Received Volunteer of the Quarter award. Gained knowledge on the operations of the Fire department. Worked 4 hours per week.

US Navy, San Francisco, CA

Operations Watch

2009-2013

Operated digital information link and command and control systems. Performed software upgrades, controlled complex sensors, evaluated clutter and determined sensor modes.

- Monitored system performance and interfaces integrating the data link through the region
- Established and executed the tactical data link for three carrier strike groups and two amphibious readiness groups while deployed to the Middle East.
- Provided tactical picture and situational awareness for senior managers.

Certificates and Clearances

note any work or military related certifications and clearances relevant to your listed experience that would support your application.*

End example.