Student Information

New Student Orientation

Metropolitan State University provides a required online orientation program for newly admitted students. This orientation session must be completed prior to course registration. Additionally, all students are encouraged to attend the on-campus group advising and registration session.

During online orientation, students are introduced to academic and student services and programs. The orientation session helps students understand their role and responsibilities as part of a vibrant community of learners and provides information about Metropolitan State's many involvement opportunities. Online orientation consists of six different modules for you to complete (Get Connected, Pay for College, Ensure your Success, Plan Your Program, Register and the Quiz). After you complete online orientation, you must take a comprehensive quiz on the content in the modules. After the quiz you need to take a survey to get credit for completing the online orientation. Online orientation does not need to be completed in one session; you can start and stop and revisit the site at your convenience. It may take up to three business days to verify the successful completion of online new student orientation. You will then receive a notification to your metrostate.edu email account confirming your completion. Once you receive the notification you are allowed to register for your courses.

What is the on-campus group advising and registration session? At this session, you can expect to receive in-depth program information, group advising, open course registration, opportunities to meet staff and faculty, information about student support services and the opportunity to get your student ID and tour the campus.

On-campus open advising and registration sessions are hosted on the Saint Paul Campus and they are about three hours. This session is encouraged for all students and required for all students admitted with fewer than 16 semester credits and those admitted on academic warning.

For more information, visit www.metrostate.edu/students/orientation.

Placement Assessment

All incoming freshmen students having no college credit are required to complete the placement tests that include basic measures of reading, writing and mathematics. As soon as students receive their acceptance letter from the Admissions Office, they should email the Placement Assessment Office at placement.assessment@metrostate.edu or call 651-793-1538 to make an appointment and complete the required tests as early as possible.

All other new students, including transfer students, are evaluated through the degree auditing process to determine whether exemption should be granted. Students should wait until they get the Degree Auditing Reports (DARS) to see their placement assessment status.

If you are required to take any of the above placement tests, a hold is put on your record, meaning you cannot register for any class. Therefore, as soon as you know that you are required to take one or more of the above tests, you should visit the Placement Assessment webpage at www.metrostate.edu/placement-assessments to make an appointment and complete the required tests as soon as possible.

If you decide to appeal your placement assessment requirement, you should first review the Exemption Criteria at www.metrostate.edu/academics/registration/placement-assessments/exemption to determine which exemption category you can use for your appeal.

You need to contact Placement Assessment if you are granted an exemption based on the criterion that you completed Accuplacer tests within the past three years in another Minnesota State institution. We need to provide the course placement based on Metropolitan State's curriculum and remove the registration hold on your record.

We also acknowledge your progress if you have followed the course placement in another Minnesota State institution when your scores are more than three years old. In this situation, you should contact us directly. This is handled on an individual basis. For appeals, exemptions and course placement questions, call 651-793-1464 or 651-793-1537, or you may email baorong.li@metrostate.edu or geeta.evans@metrostate.edu.

Placement results provide important insights into students' current skill levels in mathematics, reading and writing. Students and their advisors use the information to select or recommend those courses most suited to students' academic needs. Placement results are also used to meet the prerequisites for specific courses and/or the university's general education competency requirements. The placement assessment requirement also helps ensure faculty provide high-quality teaching to all students.

Language Proficiency Testing

A new student whose native language is not English and who is not fluent in English should take the language proficiency tests. Students can take these tests at a Minnesota State college of their choice. Contact information is available at www.metrostate.edu/academics/registration/placement-assessments/test-options. After testing, students should contact us for placement advice and registration hold removal. You may call 651-793-1464 or email baorong.li@metrostate.edu.

Student ID Card

Students should obtain their Metropolitan State University identification cards as soon as possible. An activated card is required to check out library materials as well as to access online databases and other library services, including interlibrary loans. It is also used to access the parking ramps in Saint Paul and Minneapolis as well as release print jobs at print stations that have card readers.

Student ID cards can be obtained during regular library hours until 30 minutes before closing at the Circulation Desk on the second floor of the Library and Learning Center on the Saint Paul Campus or at the Information Technology Services office, New Main, L105, during business hours. You must present a driver's license or similar government-issued photo ID. Staff will take your photograph when you apply for your student ID and will issue your student ID card immediately.

Student ID cards are automatically reactivated each semester for any student enrolled in at least one class. There is no fee to obtain the initial student ID card. There is a $10 replacement fee if the card is lost.

Information about student ID card procedures can also be found at www.metrostate.edu/students/support/id-cards. Direct any questions to the library's Circulation Desk, 651-793-1624, or email library.circulation@metrostate.edu.

StarID

A StarID account lets you register for open public courses at any college and university within Minnesota State. Your StarID is used to register for classes, check your grades, pay bills and many more functions at Metropolitan State. New students immediately receive a StarID at the time they complete the online application at eservices.minnstate.edu/adm/public/studentWelcome?campusId=076. If you already have a StarID as you have attended a school within the Minnesota State college system previously, you will continue to use that same StarID. To activate your StarID, or change your StarID password, please visit starid.minnstate.edu.

Registration Information

Web Registration Instructions

Register online via Student eServices. To access Student eServices, use any Internet browser. Go to www.metrostate.edu; select "eServices" in the footer at the bottom of the page.

- To log in: Enter your 8-character StarID and password. If you need assistance with your StarID, access the self-help system located at starid.mnscu.edu.
- To register for classes: Click on "Courses & Registration." Select "Find a Course" and refine your search with options including semester, subject, date and more. When you find a course you want to take,, click the icon under "Add" in the left hand column; this adds your course to your Wish List but does not register you for the course or hold a seat for you in the course. When you have finished adding courses to your Wish List, select "Review My Plan" to see course information tables for your Wish List and for courses you have already successfully registered for. To complete your registration, click the checkboxes located to the left of the course ID numbers in your Wish List table; after you have selected all the courses you want to register for, click "Select Course(s) to proceed to Register." Enter your StarID password and click "Register." You will receive a message either confirming your successful registration or a message explaining why you were unable to register with instructions on how to proceed with your registrations.
- To view or modify your class schedule: Under "Courses & Registration," select "View/Modify Schedule." Select the schedule you want to view by selecting the tabs above the schedule. To the left of the course ID, click the "X" icon to drop or withdraw from a course or click the pencil icon to change the grade method or credits.
- Options for registration holds, your registration window and your registration log are under "Course & Registration."

Wait-list

The wait-list is an eServices function that allows students to place themselves on a waiting list for some classes once the class has reached its capacity. Important things to remember for the wait-list:

- Placing oneself on a wait-list does not guarantee a spot in the course.
- Not all courses have a wait-list available; some courses may never offer wait-listing.
- Frequently Asked Questions are located at metro-gateway.custhelp.com.
- The wait-list shut-off date is at 11:59 a.m. on the Wednesday prior to the start of any given term.
- No petitions/overrides for full wait-listed courses are processed until the wait-list is shut off.

Registration Holds

Questions regarding registration holds can be directed to the Gateway Student Services Center at 651-793-1300.

Course Cancellations

Metropolitan State University reserves the right to cancel any course. For example, a course which does not meet minimum enrollment requirements may be canceled. Last-minute unavailability of an instructor or scheduled classroom location due to illness or disaster may also be cause to cancel a course. In case of a cancellation, Metropolitan State University notifies registered students and processes full refunds of any monies paid. Cancellations and other schedule changes occur daily. Check the Class Schedule on the web at metroapps.metrostate.edu/nwsite/nwcatalog/schedule/ for the most up-to-date information.

Registration Changes

All registration changes should be completed online through your Student eServices. The Gateway Student Services Center staff is available to answer your questions but is not able to process registration changes. Note: Parents, spouses, relatives and friends are not permitted to request registration changes for students without the signed written permission of the student. The Release of Authorization can be found under Forms under Gateway on the web site.

Note that student eServices is available for registration changes until the end of the first week of the term. This and other important dates are listed on the Academic Calendar online at www.metrostate.edu/academics/calendar. Changes after the first week typically require special permission and/or assistance.

For registration changes that require departmental approval, contact the department chair by email. A list of departmental deans and chairs can be found on www.metrostate.edu.

Adding Courses

To add most courses after the term's first week and prior to the start of the second class meeting, students must contact the Gateway Student Services Center for registration assistance. Courses with a mandatory first class attendance may not be added after the first class unless approved by the instructor. In all cases listed below, the approving authority needs to submit an override request to the Registrar's Office. Students are notified via their university email account within one or two business days once the approval has been processed and are asked to register for the course online.

- Add an open course (one that has open seats) after the mandatory first class meeting; prior to the second class; students need written permission from the instructor
- Add an open course (one that has open seats) after the second class meeting; students need written permission from the instructor
- Add a closed course (no open seats) if no seats are open prior to the second class meeting; students need written permission from the instructor and department chair/curriculum coordinator
- Change sections of a course; students need written permission from the instructor and department chair/curriculum coordinator (there is no charge for changing sections of the same course)
- Enroll for more than 16 credits per term; students need written permission from their advisor

Grades and Grading Options

The general deadline for faculty to submit grades is three business days from the last day of the term.

At registration time and through the end of the first week of the term, students may choose or change their grading option to either graded (A,B,C,D,F) or pass/no credit (S/NC) through Student eServices. The default grading method is graded (A,B,C,D,F).

- For full-term courses, students must submit a written request to the instructor for a change in grading method by the second class meeting.
- For Faculty-designed Independent Study (FDIS) courses, students must submit a written request to the instructor for a change in grading method before the first major assessment.

A student who completes a substantial amount of the required course work (as determined by the instructor) may request the instructor assign an incomplete ("I" grade). Instructors are not required to give incompletes. If the student does not complete the required work within the following semester, the "I" automatically converts to an "F" or "NC" depending upon the grading method.

Student grades are available by accessing the Student eServices. Students can request a printed grade report from the Gateway Student Services Center; however, staff members are not permitted to provide grades over the phone.

Auditing a Class

Students who wish to audit or attend a course without earning credit must register for the course and pay full tuition and fees. Courses taken for audit are not eligible for financial aid and do not count toward full-time status. Students who receive financial aid will be billed if courses taken for credit are later changed to audit status and their enrollment status falls below the minimum requirements for financial aid.

The level of participation in an audited course is determined by the instructor.

Students must change the grading method from "Normal" to "AU" after registering by selecting "View/Modify Class Schedule" and clicking on the pencil icon in front of the Course ID # and selecting "AU" as the grading method for the course. This change must be made before the end of the first week of the semester.

Students may not later receive credit for a course that has been audited except by re-enrollment for credit and successful completion of the same course in a subsequent semester.

An entry of "AU" (Audit) as a grade is made on a student's permanent academic record when a course is audited.

Online/Web-enhanced Course Sites Open to Students the Day Classes Begin

If your course is an online course or blended/hybrid course that meets some weeks online and some weeks on the Internet, the web site becomes available the day classes begin. These are in the Learning Management System (D2L). Visit www.metrostate.edu/students/support/tech-help for "Help with D2L Brightspace."

- Fall semester course site becomes available on Aug. 25. Activate your student account by Aug. 24 at the latest to be able to access your course site(s) on Aug. 25; D2L enrollments occur overnight.
- Spring semester course site becomes available on Jan. 13. Activate your student account by Jan. 12 at the latest to be able to access your course site(s) on Jan. 13; D2L enrollments occur overnight.
- Summer semester course site becomes available on May 6. Activate your student account by May 5 at the latest to be able to access your course site(s) on May 6; D2L enrollments occur overnight.

Dropping Courses

Students are responsible for dropping courses.

Students may drop courses with a refund prior to the drop deadline for the corresponding term. For specific drop dates view class schedule in eServices or log in to eServices to view/modify class schedule. The last day to withdraw from a course is listed on the Class Schedule under Drop/Withdraw Dates.

- Students have until the end of the fourth week to drop a Faculty-designed Independent Study (FDIS) with a refund.
- Theory Seminars must be dropped within a day of the first class meeting.
- Dropping courses via the Student eServices within the refund period generates a credit to the student account.
- Students who want to drop a FDIS or theory seminar with a refund after the refund period must contact the Gateway Student Services Center.
- Courses dropped within the refund period of the term do not appear on the student's transcript.

Drop for Nonattendance/Nonparticipation

Students are dropped for nonattendance or nonparticipation after either the first two class sessions/first class if mandatory first class attendance is required or after the second week of the term.

- Students are ultimately responsible for dropping courses if they no longer plan to attend/participate.

Students who have been dropped for nonattendance or nonparticipation and wish to reenroll in courses should refer to the Adding Courses section of this publication.

Withdrawing from a Course

After the drop deadline, students may withdraw from course(s).

- Log in to eServices, view/modify class schedule. The last day to withdraw from a course is listed on the Class Schedule under Drop/Withdraw Dates.

Withdrawing from all Registered Courses within a Semester

Admitted, degree-seeking students who officially withdraw from all university courses during any given semester beyond the drop deadline may be eligible for a partial refund of tuition. For more information or to see if you are eligible for a partial refund call the Gateway Student Services Center at 651-793-1300 or email gateway@metrostate.edu. Information can also be found at www.minnstate.edu/board/policy/512.html.

Repeating Courses

- Students may, without permission, repeat Metropolitan State courses at Metropolitan State in which they received grades of "D", "F" or "NC." The course must be repeated using the same grading method as the initial enrollment in the course. If learning is repeated only once, the higher grade is used in the grade point average (GPA) calculation. If the learning is repeated more than once, the GPA calculation includes all subsequent attempts. Only one repeat attempt can be excluded from the GPA calculation.
- Students may not repeat courses in which they received a grade of "C-" or better and have the course exempted from the GPA calculation without the permission of the dean of the college through which the course is offered. Unless properly signed, the Registrar's Office will not process repeat forms for courses in which a student received a grade of "C-" or better.
- Repeated courses are marked with an (R) on the student transcript.

Residency

Resident status is determined at the time of application. Students who meet one or more of the following conditions on the date they apply for admission are classified as residents of Minnesota:

- Students who resided in the state for at least one calendar year immediately prior to applying for admission, or dependent students who have a parent or legal guardian residing in Minnesota on the date the students apply.
- Minnesota residents who can demonstrate that they were temporarily absent from the state without establishing residency elsewhere.
- Persons who moved to the state for employment purposes and, before moving and before applying for admission to a postsecondary institution, accepted a full-time job in the state, or students who are spouses or dependents of such persons.

In addition, individuals from foreign countries who are eligible to remain in the United States on a permanent basis and meet the above requirements are considered Minnesota residents. A document attesting to an immigrant status of the student is required as evidence. Residency must not be primarily for the purpose of attending a college or university.

For more information visit www.metrostate.edu/finances/tuition/residency.

Reciprocity

Wisconsin and North Dakota residents who attend Metropolitan State University under a reciprocity agreement must file appropriate forms with their respective home state.

- Wisconsin reciprocity forms are available at www.heab.state.wi.us/reciprocity/index.html
- North Dakota reciprocity forms are available at ndus.edu/educational-costs/student-exchange-or-reciprocity-programs/
- South Dakota residents do not have to apply for reciprocity. Students indicating South Dakota residency at the time of admission will be assessed the South Dakota reciprocity tuition rate, which is the same as the Minnesota tuition rate.

The university must receive official approval of reciprocity before the student is eligible for reciprocity tuition rates. A student is assessed the nonresident tuition rate prior to reciprocity approval.

Course Completion Deadlines

All course work for learning activities must be completed according to the following schedule:

- All courses: Students must meet all deadlines set by course instructors.
- Faculty-designed Independent Study courses: Students must complete all course work by the end of the term.
- Student-designed Independent Study courses: Students have 140 days to complete all course work from the date of registration or the start of the term (whichever is later).
- Internships: Students have six months to complete internships from the date of registration or the start of the term (whichever is later).
- Prior Learning Assessment (PLA): Students have 90 days to complete a PLA from the date of registration or the start of the term (whichever is later).
- Theory Seminars: Students must meet all deadlines set by course instructors.

For all of the above, the instructor must enter a grade of "I" if not finished by the end of the semester/term.

Registration Appeals

Students are responsible for knowing and adhering to all Metropolitan State University policies and procedures. However, in some cases, students who have experienced extenuating circumstances beyond their control or have experienced an administrative situation that prevented them from successfully completing a course may petition the Registration Appeals Committee for a retroactive drop or withdrawal.

- Visit www.metrostate.edu/academics/registration/appeals to access the Registration Appeal form and instructions.
- All Registration Appeals are reviewed by the Registration Appeals Committee. Their decision is final.
- Students receiving financial aid should also contact the Gateway Student Services to determine the impact of their request on their financial aid. There is a signature block on the appeal form for a financial aid representative to sign.

The Registration Appeals Committee will not process appeals for students with financial aid unless their form is signed by a Metropolitan State financial aid representative.

Registration at Other Institutions

Students interested in enrolling in courses at another institution while taking courses at Metropolitan State University should consult their advisor or contact the Gateway Student Services Center for specific procedures at 651-793-1300.

Tuition and Fees

Students are ultimately responsible for all tuition and fees connected with their registration. Students who have not paid their tuition and have not made arrangements (such as receiving financial aid) to pay their tuition by the tuition payment deadline are administratively dropped from their courses. Accounts for students who have made partial payment but who have remaining balances at the end of the term are turned over to the Minnesota Department of Revenue for collection.

Students are responsible for paying their tuition and fees in full by the tuition payment deadline. Invoices are no longer sent to students through the mail. Students should access their Student eServices account on the web. If classes are added after the tuition payment deadline, payment must be received the same day. Students who do not pay by midnight of the day they register are dropped the following day.

A student's tuition obligation for a term is based upon the number and type of credits for which a student is enrolled.

Tuition and Fees 2019–2020

Note: All tuition and fees are subject to change. Courses may be audited. Students are charged tuition and fees for audited courses.

Alternative Learning Strategies

Metropolitan State encourages students to learn in a variety of ways and to seek alternatives to traditional classroom learning and evaluation to meet their learning needs and goals, including the following options.

Internships

Students can develop innovative and flexible academic internships to fulfill their personal or professional goals. Internships offer students the chance to earn credit through hands-on learning at a variety of sites, in- and out-of-state.

Students complete and submit an academic internship agreement form that is approved by a faculty liaison and processed by the academic internship coordinator in order to be registered. Visit the Institute for Community Engagement and Scholarship website, www.metrostate.edu/community, for more information or assistance.

Student-directed Learning

Students learn in many ways and in a variety of settings outside the traditional classroom. The university recognizes and encourages such lifelong learning pursuits. Student-directed learning can become incorporated into your program through prior learning, theory seminars and/or student-designed independent study.

Prior Learning: The Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) process is used to evaluate what students have learned in their lives, work and through independent study, typically outside the classroom, as legitimate learning for university credit. The process includes clearly defining what has been learned and having that learning evaluated by a trained faculty evaluator. The student prepares a proposal to have the learning outcomes and competence assessed, obtains faculty approval for registration, and then provides evidence of learning through evaluation methods appropriate for the subject and competence.

Theory Seminars: Theory seminars are designed specifically for students with extensive experience and practical knowledge in a subject, and who want to ground their learning with additional academic context and the theory and principles of the subject. Seminars are also appropriate for students who have strong practical knowledge but not enough theoretical learning to consider a PLA. Seminars require a diagnostic “placement” assessment to help the student self-assess whether the seminar is the appropriate format, and may also require instructor approval to register. Seminars may be an alternative to a regular course, or may cover specialized subjects or survey themes. Seminars, listed in the Class Schedule, are typically scheduled to meet two to four times, with independent work between seminar sessions.

Student-designed Independent Study (SDIS): Independent study allows students an opportunity to build learning skills indispensable to the workplace and to personal, lifelong development. SDIS allows students to pursue an interest or project with the help of a faculty member who serves as a guide and evaluates the learning for credit. The SDIS project can involve a variety of learning methods, such as community-based or professional training, experiential learning and/or independent research. The student develops an independent study proposal, seeks approval to work with a faculty member, completes the study plan and provides evidence of learning outcomes and competence to the faculty evaluator.

For more information, see the Learning Strategies and Assessment Choices section of the website at www.metrostate.edu/academics/success/strategy and consider the one-credit course METR 100: Getting Credit for What You Know. The registration proposal form may be found online on the Student-Directed Learning Options page, www.metrostate.edu/academics/success/strategy/student-directed.

Other Alternative Learning Opportunities

Faculty members teach using a variety of methods, so as to provide multiple ways for students to learn. The following options are designed by faculty and listed in the Class Schedule. Some parallel classroom courses are offered in an alternative format; some cover specialized subjects.

Online Courses: Online courses offer students a flexible learning experience that is balanced with structured assignments and due dates and frequent online contact with instructors and fellow students. Most online courses at Metropolitan State are designed so that students can work asynchronously, at their convenience at different times and diverse places. Students taking online courses should have easy access to the internet, be comfortable browsing the internet, and have intermediate word processing and file management skills. Some online courses will require a student to have a web camera and headphones with microphones.

Blended/Hybrid Courses: Blended/Hybrid courses combine some classroom time and participation with other work and participation conducted in an online course format. This format has the advantage of including both classroom interaction and instruction with other students and the instructor, along with the flexibility of online learning.

Faculty-designed Independent Study (FDIS): Faculty-designed independent studies are taken by students independently, reading materials and doing assignments by following the instructor's outline.

Communication with the instructor may be via U.S. mail, email, an online learning platform or a combination; there are typically no class sessions. FDIS offerings may parallel a classroom course or be a unique or specialized subject not offered in a classroom.

To search for learning-format alternatives, select “Delivery Method-all” in the “Search Options” of the class schedule in eServices.

In addition, courses listed under the General Education and Liberal Studies Electives section of the approved GELS course list may also be used.

- Only courses with a grade of "D" or higher can be used to meet goal area requirements.
- Students who have completed the MnTC since Fall 1995, or who have earned an associate of arts (AA) degree from a Minnesota State institution or the University of Minnesota, do not need to complete general education goal area requirements at Metropolitan State. However, these students must meet the university's Liberal Studies requirement. This exemption does not apply to the AS, AAS or other associate degrees.
- GELS requirements may be met by transfer courses or by courses completed at Metropolitan State.
- Courses approved for a goal area at another Minnesota State institution will apply to the same goal area at Metropolitan State. Students having completed a goal area at another Minnesota State institution will have the goal fulfilled at Metropolitan State.
- The Degree Audit (DARS) will show the official means by which transfer credits are accepted and applied to GELS. Students may appeal transfer evaluation decisions in consultation with their advisor through eServices, Transfer Review.
- Minnesota State policy requires a cumulative 2.0 Minnesota Transfer Curriculum GPA to certify completion.

Center for Academic Excellence

The Center for Academic Excellence offers free tutoring in writing, math, science, computer science, accounting, finance, economics, and symbolic logic to all currently-enrolled students—first-year through graduate—including students with disabilities and multilingual learners. Tutors also work with American Sign Language speakers and interpreters. Visit metrostate.mywconline.net to schedule a tutorial. More information, including current hours, is available at www.metrostate.edu/academics/success/tutoring.

Math Center: Students visit the Math Center for group work and individual practice in mathematics, statistics, computer science, accounting, finance, economics, and symbolic logic. Tutors are available to work with individuals and small groups during drop-in hours at Midway Center; the Saint Paul Campus location requires appointments. Handouts for graphing calculator techniques are available for students.

Current schedules are posted at www.metrostate.edu/academics/success/tutoring. Schedule appointments at the Saint Paul Campus location by visiting metrostate.mywconline.net.

Writing Center: The Writing Center provides writing tutorial support to students. Free tutorials are available to currently-enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. Students may schedule face-to-face and/or eTutorials. All tutors are trained to work with multilingual learners.

Science Center: The Science Center provides a community space for students and tutors to gather and work on biology, chemistry and physics course work. Science Center staff provide mentoring and tutoring support to students in science study skills. We encourage and support study groups; individuals are invited to join us as well. Many students visit to work on dimensional analysis, scientific notation, periodic tables and lab reports.

Current schedules are posted at www.metrostate.edu/academics/success/tutoring. Currently enrolled students may schedule 50-minute tutorials at metrostate.mywconline.net.

Testing Center: The Testing Center provides a secure environment for make-up and proctored examinations for independent study classes offered at Metropolitan State University. Students should schedule appointments at least 24 hours in advance and must show photo identification before testing.

Center for Accessibility Resources

The Center for Accessibility Resources ensures that all programs, services and activities at Metropolitan State University are accessible. We believe that equity in access is a shared responsibility of all members of the university community, including faculty, staff and students. We recognize that disability is one of many identities that an individual may have and that these individuals are a vital and welcome part of our diverse university community. We also recognize that disability, hidden or apparent, is a social or cultural construct that often creates barriers for people. We strive to eliminate or minimize these barriers and empower individuals to be as independent as possible by facilitating an interactive process and building universally accessible campuses.

The Center for Accessibility Resources coordinates a wide variety of reasonable accommodations for students. We meet with each student upon request in an effort to understand their unique experiences and how they are impacted in an educational environment. Information shared with the Center for Accessibility Resources is confidential and kept separate from a student's academic record. Some of the most common accommodations include (but are not limited to):

- Extended test time
- Distraction reduced test environment
- Use of assistive technology for note taking
- Audio textbooks

Library Services

Library Overview and ID Card

The Library and Learning Center is on the Saint Paul Campus, connected to St. John's Hall and New Main by the skyway. The first floor of the library houses the reference desk, computer help desk and computer lab. The second floor houses circulating materials like books and DVDs. You can get your student ID card at the circulation desk, just inside the second floor. Use it to check out books and order things from other libraries (free of charge) through interlibrary loan.

A Place to Study

The library has a variety of study rooms, open study tables, computer workstations and comfy spaces to study or lounge in. There are journals and magazines to read, books, DVDs and even cameras and board games that can be checked out.

Research Assistance and Tools

The first floor reference desk is staffed by librarians who can help you find information on any topic. If you are looking for scholarly articles, books or DVDs, or even a good website, the librarians will help you find and evaluate sources. Reference librarians are available in person at the reference desk, over the phone at 651-793-1614, via email at library.services@metrostate.edu, or via the chat box on the library's homepage.

The library subscribes to more than 100 subscription research databases that will help you find articles, books and more. In addition, there are online tools that help you prepare for entrance exams and cite your references.

Computer Help and Lab

The Information Commons associates at the computer help desk can assist you with your computing needs such as formatting research papers, creating presentations, scanning, printing and more. Computers are available on the first and second floors and wireless access throughout the building. Laptops are also available for checkout and use in the building. Wireless printing is available at webprint.metrostate.edu.

Off-campus Access and Library Guides

Many library resources are available from off campus, including streaming video, ebooks and full-text electronic journal articles. You can search much of that material online from the library home page at www.metrostate.edu/library. Use your StarID and password for access. Library Guides are another great place to start when researching a topic or finding information for a class. They can be found in the Research Guides section of the library website and highlight the best library tools and databases for specific topic areas. The library also provides full research assistance over phone, email or instant message.

INFS 115 (Information Access)

The librarians at Metropolitan State University teach a two-credit course on doing research using online sources, citing sources, and evaluating websites.

In-person and online sections of the course are available. Join us to develop your research skills!

Monday–Friday: 6:30 a.m.–11:30 p.m.
Saturday: 6:30 a.m.–8:30 p.m.
Sunday: 11:30 a.m.–11:30 p.m.

Helpful Hints

- Student fees provide parking access using the Student ID card; faculty and staff may register for parking to access the ramp via their ID card
- You must touch your ID card to the card reader or place it within three inches of the card reader to activate the gates
- You may leave your ID card inside your wallet or other carrying case as it should still work from within a thin holder; if it doesn't, remove the card from the wallet or carry case and touch the card to the reader

- If you pull a ticket to enter the ramp, you cannot use your ID to exit: use the intercom for assistance with exiting without incurring additional payment (for employees registered for parking access and students enrolled in the current semester or new/returning students for the two weeks prior to the new semester start only)
- Students or employees needing new photo ID cards may obtain one by going to the Saint Paul Campus Library, Second Floor Circulation Desk or to the Admissions Office, First Floor Founders Hall to the right of Gateway Student Services
